Dear Maple Syrup Customers,

This is the 8th annual letter to you.

This year I went south to South America, Patagonia. This includes Argentina and Chile, to see Glaciers, Mountains, Wildlife, 5-day boat trip In Magellan Chanel and got to Cape Horn Light House (the most southern land in world other than Antarctica). Also did trip extension to Iguazu Falls, one of Seven Natural Wonders of the World. I'm putting photos of trip on my personal Facebook page if you would like to see them.

Coles Turnpike Tree Farm notes:

- Coles Maple Syrup sales are open every day at 3143 NY Rt 206, Whitney Point, NY
- This Maple Syrup Season was different. The thing we don't control is the weather; we have to deal with what we get. Started boiling 2/21 and last boil was 3/26.
- Still with weather, the rest of the syrup we made good tasting Maple Syrup.
- During the Christmas Season and rest of year, we will be shipping Maple Syrup Products as normal with 2026 flyer, will try to ship orders the next day after receipt of orders. In 2026-27 please check the web page for current pricing. The post office keeps changing postage Rates.
- Christmas Tree sales season will start Friday, November 27 and the end date will be when we are sold out of Christmas Trees. (Last year Christmas tree season only lasted 2 weekends.)

We will continue to keep you posted with Facebook pages and Web Page.

Facebook pages:

Coles Maple Syrup (for Maple Syrup business)

Coles Turnpike Tree Farm (for Christmas Tree and other Tree Farm business)

Web Page:

www.Colesmaplesyrup.com or www.Colesturnpiketreefarm.com

Both will end up at same web page that has information on all farm businesses with up-to-date prices and a current mail order form for Pure Maple Syrup Products.

After Christmas tree season, I will be spending a lot of time repairing tubing damage from high winds July 24th and updating maple tubing system and pests have chewed on tubing.
